

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Dr. Allan C. Orate is a full professor at the College of Arts and Sciences, University of the East-Manila, and a professorial lecturer at the UE Graduate School. He is a former chair of the Department of Humanities and Philosophy and has been in UE since 1998.

He earned his Bachelor of Arts in Classical Philosophy from the St. Peter's College Seminary in San Pablo City as Bene Meritus, and was awarded Best in Philosophy, and Most Outstanding Seminarian of the Year. He also took up Bachelor of Arts in Sacred Theology at St. Alphonsus Major Seminary in Lucena City.

He finished Master of Arts in Philosophy from the University of Santo Tomas, graduating Summa Cum Laude and then proceeded to the University of the Philippines Diliman where he earned his PhD in Philippine Studies in the Tri-College Program, specializing in the interdisciplinary fields of Philosophy, Anthropology and Cultural Studies.

He currently teaches undergraduate courses such as Logic, Ethics, Philosophy of Man, Epistemology, Axiology, Modern and Contemporary Philosophy, and Art Appreciation. He also handles graduate courses in the PhD Multidisciplinary Metropolitan Studies Program.

He is particularly interested in the philosophical concepts and theological and moral discourses on gender and sexuality in Filipino culture and Catholic religion especially the integration of culture and religion in the Philippines, within the multidisciplinary fields of philosophy, theology and cultural studies. He also delves into the philosophy of education in the Philippines, and in philosophical theories of art about which he has published works and delivered papers on. He has also written textbooks in Logic, Ethics and Introduction to Philosophy.

Prof. Angelito C. Descalzo is currently the associate dean of the College of Business Administration Manila and associate professor of the Department of Accountancy, Business Law and Taxation of the same college.

Jhanella C. Alvares graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy at the University of the East Manila in 2022 Magna Cum Laude.

Ryan Philippe L. Khia graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy at the University of the East Manila in 2022 Cum Laude.

Shin Ainsley L. Reas earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy at the University of the East Manila in 2022.

Reygilyn A. Reyes finished her Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy at the University of the East Manila in 2022 Cum Laude.

Joyce Ann E. Romantico graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy at the University of the East Manila in 2022 Magna Cum Laude.

Nizel Ann C. Serviño graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy at the University of the East Manila in 2022 Magna Cum Laude.

Dr. Julius Cesar Rosales Pascual is an associate professor and program coordinator at the Department of Languages and Communication Arts, College of Arts and Sciences of the University of the East (UE) Manila. Prof. Pascual earned his PhD in Communication with an Outstanding Dissertation Award at the University of the Philippines Diliman in 2019. He obtained his MA in English Language Teaching with the Best M.A. Thesis award in 2010 and Mass Communication major in Bachelor in Journalism (with honors) and Secondary Education major in English at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines in 2003. Prof. Pascual is a licensed professional Secondary Level-major in English teacher who has been in academia for 20 years, 13 of which have been at UE, where he received a Plaque of Recognition for his Model Teacher Award in 2022. He is currently the adviser of the Dawn, UE's official student publication. He conducts research in communication and social development, social media and relationships, political communication, media, government, and society, Filipino communicative experience, teens and spirituality and risk and crisis communication. He also does media writing and language editing.

Dr. Virgilio V. Salentes is a part-time professorial lecturer at the UE Graduate School since 2009. He was formerly connected with the Securities and Exchange Commission as director of the Economic Research and Information Department from 2005 to 2016. He also served as director III of the Management Staff of the National Economic and Development Authority [NEDA] from 1992 to 2005, where he held concurrent positions as deputy executive director of the Legislative-Executive Development Advisory Council [LEDAC] Secretariat, and as portfolio director [Philippine side] of the UNDP-PH Joint Portfolio on Good Governance. Dr. Salentes has a masters degree in Development Studies and a doctorate degree in Business Administration.

Dr. Maribel C. Tubera is an architect and an environmental planner by profession. She is an associate professor of BS Architecture at the De La Salle College of Saint Benilde School of Environment and Design and a part-time associate professor of MS Construction Management at the University of the East Graduate School. She entered the academe in 2011 at the University of the East. She also taught at the University of Santo Tomas, Far Eastern University and Don Bosco Technical College. She is a member of the United Architects of the Philippines and Philippine Institute of Environmental Planners. She is also a resource speaker in Continuing Professional Development for architects and engineers and other allied professions. Dr. Tubera finished her Doctor of Business Administration and MS Construction Management at the University of the East Graduate School.