

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Prof. John Israel U. Cunanan is the Senior Administrative Assistant at the Office of Curriculum Development and Instruction of the University of the East. He holds an AB in Humanities from the University of Asia and the Pacific, a Master of Arts in Philosophy of Education from the University of the Philippines Diliman, and currently pursuing his PhD in Educational History and Philosophy at UP Diliman. He has presented a number of papers in conferences here and abroad and has delivered lectures in several engagements in the areas of philosophy of education and epistemology of education. He is a lecturer at the Philosophy of Education and Values Education Program at the UP Diliman College of Education. He is also a licensed professional teacher.

Dr. Michael Arthur G. Muega is a professor at the College of Education of the University of the Philippines Diliman in charge of the Philosophy of Education and Values Education Programs. He holds a bachelor's degree in journalism, a master's degree in philosophy, and doctoral degrees in philosophy of education and in special education. He received all his degrees from the University of the Philippines Diliman. His ideas and beliefs in education are informed by knowledge and wisdom from philosophy, sociology, psychology, and other sciences. His philosophy of education is inspired by pluralistic Social Reconstructionism. He has published in peer-reviewed local and international journals of education.

Dr. Maricris B. Acido is a professor of history, philosophy of education, and values education at the University of the Philippines College of Education. She holds degrees in Educational History and Philosophy (2004), MA Philosophy (1998), BA Philosophy (1994), a certificate in Ethics Teaching from the UNESCO Bangkok (2014, 2015), and a certificate in Philosophy for Children facilitation from the Institute for the Advancement of Philosophy for Children in Montclair State University, USA (July-August 2022). She was a Fulbright Senior Lecturing & Research Fellow at the School of Education, Indiana University Southeast, USA (2017-2018), was part of the UNESCO Youth & Sustainable Futures (2015), and is a member of the Pi Lambda Theta International Honor Society (Philippines Chapter).

Dr. Trinette C. Colina is currently an Assistant Professor at the College of Dentistry University of the East handling the subjects Pediatric Dentistry, Clinical Conference in Orthodontics and Pediatric Dentistry, Research 1 and Research 2. She is also a member of the College Research Committee, Faculty Evaluation Committee, Faculty and Staff Development Committee, Research Strategic Planning Committee, Accreditation Committee, and Ethics Review Committee. She earned her Pre-Dentistry degree in 2001 and Doctor of Dental Medicine degree in 2006 at University of the Philippines Manila. She holds a Master in Health Professions Education in 2020 at University of the Philippines Manila, National Teacher Training Center for the Health Professions. She was awarded 2nd Best Oral Presenter in 2015 at the Health Professions Education Expo and Most Outstanding Graduate of Orthodontic Preceptorship Program in 2013.

Ma. Theresa A. Obias, Leony Rose M. Crisostomo, Arantxa Arlexa D. Labasan, Geneveive S. Sister, Christian T. Sumagang and Dannycka Millenea R. Tampus are currently 6th year students of Doctor of Dental Medicine at the University of the East.

Dr. Mildred P. Jimenez is currently the coordinator of the UE Expanded Tertiary Education, Equivalency and Accreditation Program (ETEEAP) and presently teaching at the UE College of Education, Graduate School and College of Business Administration Manila. She obtained her Doctor of Education degree major in Educational Administration and Leadership from the University of the East in May 2020. She holds a Master of Arts in Education major in Educational Management and Administration from the Philippine Women's University and a Master of Arts in Education major in English as a Second Language also from the University of the East. Occasionally, Dr. Jimenez is invited as a Department of Education Learning Resource Evaluator and contributes to various academic publications. She has been an adviser of the Akademia Organization for more than 5 years now, a teacher trainer for the Foundation for Upgrading the Standards of Education, Inc. (FUSE), and an associate member of the National Research Council of the Philippines.

Myxzon Kiel R. Dumandan is a graduate of Business Management from the University of the East in June 2024.

Aldwin John P. Marcelo is currently enrolled in the Marketing Management program from the University of the East.

John Christopher L. Peralta is a graduate of Financial Management from the University of the East in 2024. He is a certified data science analyst, a certified financial management professional, a Microsoft Office specialist and an Excel associate. He is a recipient of the 2012 Horni Jeleni, Czech Republic Music Festival Clarinetist, DLSU 2016 Gawad Kultura Award, and the 2019 Kusatsu, Japan Music Festival Clarinetist.

Kervey M. Servado is a graduate of Business Management from the University of the East in June 2024.

Magel F. Tapucar is a graduate of Financial Management from the University of the East in June 2024. She was an awardee of Exemplary Academic Performance for A.Y. 2021-2022 and A.Y. 2022-2023.