

REVIEWERS

Dr. Allan C. Orate is a professor at the College of Arts and Sciences, University of the East Manila and a professorial lecturer at the UE Graduate School. He is the former chair of the Department of Humanities and Philosophy. As a researcher, Dr. Orate is interested in the philosophical concepts and theological and moral discourses on gender and sexuality in Philippine culture and Catholic religion. He also writes about philosophy of education in the Philippines. He has published journal articles, and delivered papers on these subjects.

Professor Kimson Gener G. Kong is a professor of Philosophy and Humanities at the University of the East, where he also served as the department chair of social sciences for three years. He earned his AB Philosophy degree from Divine Word Seminary in Tagaytay City, where he also completed his MA in Theology, major in Pastoral Ministry. He is currently enrolled in the Doctor of Education program in Administration and Leadership at the University of the East Manila. Prof. Kimson previously taught at several esteemed institutions, including San Beda College, Assumption College, and the University of Santo Tomas. He completed CHED's Faculty Training for teaching Ethics as a new General Education course in Higher Education.

Dr. Leila T. Salera is regular faculty member at the University of the East College of Dentistry handling subjects such as General Pathology, Principles of Medicine and General Physiology. She graduated 4th in her class in 2000 from the University of Perpetual Help System College of Medicine, Binan, Laguna. She finished her Residency Training in Pathology at the Makati Medical Center and became a Diplomate in the Philippine Society of Pathologists, Inc. in 2009 and 2010, respectively. Dr. Salera became fellow in both Anatomic and Clinical Pathology in 2017. She is a Consultant Pathologist at the Global Medical Center of Laguna in Cabuyao, Laguna, and the head of the Section of Hematology. She is also a part-time faculty at the Adventist University of the Philippines College of Medicine, Silang, Cavite from 2018 to the present.

Dr. Harvey L. Laranang is currently a faculty member of the University of the East College of Dentistry teaching Oral Microbiology, Dental Infection Control, Roentgenology, Forensic Dentistry and Practice Management with Entrepreneurship. He graduated from the UE College of Dentistry in 2003. Aside from teaching, he is also a hospital dentist at the Hospital of the Infant Jesus Medical Center in Sampaloc Manila and a fellow of the International College of Dentists, Philippine Section IX.

Professor Yonardo A. Gabuyo is currently the director of the Office of Quality Assurance at the University of the East and a faculty member of the UE College of Business Administration. He earned his Bachelor of Secondary Education Major in Mathematics at the Lyceum of Aparri and Master of Arts in Education Major in Mathematics at the St. Paul University of the Philippines in Tuguegarao, Cagayan. Additionally, he has completed the academic requirements for the Doctor of Educational Management program at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines. Professor Gabuyo is a prolific author, having written and published several books on key educational topics, including "Assessment in Learning 1 and 2" and "Statistics and Probability." His research interests include data analytics, assessment in learning, outcomes-based education, and constructive alignment, reflecting his commitment to advancing educational methodologies and ensuring high-quality learning experiences.

Dr. Joselito G. Arevalo is currently the chair of the Marketing and Management Program of the college and previously the associate dean of UE Manila CBA. He completed his BSBA-Management degree, Masters in Business Administration (MBA) and Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) from the University of the East Manila. He also took up 18 units in Education and Masters in Teaching English (units) as a Second Language at the Philippine Normal University. He used to be a member of the technical panel for Business Education and Office Administration of the Commission on Higher Education (CHED). He previously worked as a bank manager and a corporate trainer in customer service, quality assurance and TQM, attitudinal development and sales management. He helped in establishing the College of Business Administration of UE Manila from the planning stage up to the awarding of CHED's government permit.